With reference to Government order No.Fl.4046-8/S.A.297-34-1 dated 5th November 1934, sanctioning the revised scale of pay of the officers in the Medical Department and changing the designation of Medical Probationers into 3rd class Assistant Surgeons on Rs.80-10-120, I have the honor to forward herewith for favour of approval and sanction, an allocation statement in respect of the 14 third class Assistant Surgeons. The officers whose appointments count against the vacancies made available from the Sub Assistant Surgeons' cadre will however be continued to be styled as Medical Probationers, their pay being fixed one on Rs.80/-, This arrangement will continue till all the eight places detailed in Government OrderNo.4.7890/Medl.196-32-2. dated 8.12.32, are converted into the charge of Medical Probationers. Whenever vacancies in the grade of Rs.80-10-120 occur, the Medical Probationers on Rs.80/- will be promoted (according to seniority and merit) as 3rd class Assistant Surgeons and the new entrants recruited on Rs.80/-.

I also request that permission may be granted to include the names of all the 3rd class Assistant Surgeons in the civil list.

I recommend that Medical Probationers Messrs.K.Sundaresan, Y. Appajee, B. Subbaramiah, Abdul Khalac Sheriff and B.S. Ramiah and D.A. Lakshmana Rao be confirmed against the dates noted against their names.
